- Platform teams are unique in that they prioritize initiatives themselves
- "Why can't we just have one backlog?!"
- To advocate for our own vision

 Prioritization

- Moving away from figjam into a more formal RICE scoring system in atlassian
- This is new, starting next week
- Platform Em is responsible for collecting ideas
- It is unclear what the sdk "is".
 - To me the sdk is a product builder
- "What gets it to a fully functional state?"
- "Different people have different visions about this"
- Swayzer for the sdk
- "I don't want another mailer"
- Need to take stock of jira automations
